PRICE, 2 CENTS

PATIENCE URGED BY PRESIDENT WILSON

Forbids Exportation of Arms and Munitions
To Mexico.

READS HIS MESSAGE.

Joint Session of Two Houses of Congress Hear President's Views on Mexico Today.

Washington, Aug. 27.—Further patience on the part of the American people and notice that he had forbidden the importation of arms and munitions of war to Mexico were the dominant notes of President Wilson's long-looked-for message on Mexican affairs which was read to Congress at one o'clock today.

"Meanwhile, what is it our duty to do? Clearly, everything that we do must be rooted in patience, and done with calm and disinterested deliberation. Impatience on our part would be childish, and would be fraught with every risk of wrong and folly. We can afford to exercise the self-restraint of a really great nation which realizes its own strength and scorn to misuse it. It was our duty to offer our active assistance. It is now our duty to show what true neutrality will do to enable the people of Mexico to set their affairs in order again and wait for a further opportunity to offer our friendly counsels. The door is not closed against the resumption, either upon the initiative of Mexico or upon our own, of the effort to bring order out of the confusion by friendly cooperative action, should fortunate occasion offer.

"While we wait the contest of the rival forces will undoubtedly for a little while be sharper than ever, just because it will be plain that an end must be made of the existing situation and that very promptly; and with the increased activity of the contending factions will come, it is to be feared, increased danger to the noncombatants in Mexico as well as to those actually in the field of battle. The position of outsiders is always particularly trying and full of hazard where there is civil strife and a whole country is upset. We should earnestly urge all Americans to leave Mexico at once, and should assist them to get away in every way possible—not because we would mean to slacken in the least our efforts to safeguard their lives and their interests, but because it is imperative that they should take no unnecessary risks when it is physically possible for them to leave the country. We should let every one who assumes to exercise authority in any part of Mexico know in the most unequivocal way that we shall vigilantly watch the fortunes of those Americans who can not get away, and shall hold those responsible for their sufferings and losses to a definite reckoning. That can be and will be made plain beyond the possibility of a misunderstanding.

"For the rest I deem it my duty to exercise the authority conferred upon me by the law of March 14, 1912, to see to it that neither side to the struggle now going on in Mexico receive any assistance from this side of the border. I shall follow the best practice of nations in the matter of neutrality by forbidding the exportation of arms or munitions of war of any kind from the United States to any part of the Republic of Mexico—a policy suggested by several interesting precedents and certainly dictated by many manifest considerations of practical expediency. We can not in the circumstances be the partisans of either party to the contest that now distracts Mexico, or constitute ourselves the virtual umpire between them."

The message commences with a review of the conditions in Mexico and expresses great friendship for the people of that country. The president says that the present circumstances of the Republic does not seem to promise even the foundation of peace. He reviews the sending of John Lind to Mexico as his special representative and outlines the instructions which were given to Lind which demanded the following conditions:

An immediate cessation of fighting throughout Mexico; an early and free election; the consent of President Huerta not to be a candidate and the agreement of all parties to abide by the result of this election. The President stated that Mr. Lind's mission failed because the authorities at Mexico City had been grossly misinformed and misled upon two points—they did not believe the earnest friendship of the United States and their desires for peace and they did not believe that the present administration spoke, through Mr. Lind, for the people of the United States.

HELD FOR THEFT OF HORSE.

Took Team and Drove Away "To See The Country."

Frederick, Md., Aug. 27.—A boy about 15 years old, giving his name as E. Lauriot, and claiming to be from Staunton, Va., was placed in jail yesterday, and unless called for by the Virginia authorities will be held for the grand jury on the charge of horse stealing.

He was brought from Brunswick by Officer Van Pelt, and seems unconcerned as to his fate. He took a horse and runabout belonging to Samuel W. George & Co., and drove about 10 miles into the country before being captured. When found he had unhitched the horse and was trying to secure lodging.

DOCTOR CAUGHT WITH GIRLS.

Trip From Middleburg, Va., Leads To Charges.

Baltimore, Aug. 27.—Charged with performing a criminal operation on Lucy Pearson, 17 years old, of Middleburg, Loudoun County, Va., and enticing her sister, Catherine, 15 years old, from her home, Dr. Charles Goettling, 26 years old, of Middleburg, but formerly of Baltimore, was released by Justice Saylor at the Western Police Station, yesterday afternoon on $1,000 bail. The case was continued until September 15, as Miss Pearson was not in a condition to testify.

Sergeant Moore, of the Western district, testified that about 4:30 yesterday morning he noticed two couples enter a furnished room house at 510 West Malberry street. He watched until two men left the house. He notified Patrolmen West and Knealy, who stopped the men and questioned them. One he said, was Dr. Goettling, who told the officers that his friend was Thomas Woodall, of Baltimore, who had helped him secure lodging for the girls whom he had brought to the city to visit some friends.

The sergeant then left the men in charge of the patrolmen while he went back to interview the girls. They said, according to Sergeant Moore, that they had no acquaintances here and told him that Sunday they left Middleburg in Dr. Goettling's automobile in charge of his colored chauffeur and were driven to The Plains not far from Middleburg, where they were met by the physician and a man named Claude Hacker. The party proceeded to Washington, according to the story, and the machine, becoming disabled, Hacker remained by it, while Dr. Goettling and the girls boarded a train for Baltimore, arriving about 11 o'clock that night.

Mrs. Fox, keeper of a boarding house at 422 north Greene street, told Captain Cole that on June 19 Dr. Goettling came to her home and introduced Lucy Pearson as his wife. The following Monday they left.

The girls were committed to the House of the Good Shepherd and their mother notified. She is expected to arrive in Baltimore today.

Dr. Goettling is the son of Charles A. Goettling, of Palmer Avenue, Denmore Park. Mr. Goettling said his son studied medicine at the University of Maryland and went to Middleburg to practice about a year and a half ago.

Two women were shot by their husbands, one probably fatally; a negro woman was killed by an admirer, who then mortally wounded a policeman, while one of the husbands attempted to commit suicide, in a wave of crime which swept over Philadelphia and vicinity last night. The negro who shot and killed the colored woman and who mortally wounded the policeman, also a negro, narrowly escaped lynching at the hands of a crowd of infuriated members of his own race and a few white men.

FORMER SPEAKER CANNON RESTIVE

Wants to Re-Enter Political Arena and Return to Congress.

WEARY OF THE CALM.

Other Lame Ducks Said to be Grooming Themselves for Throwing Hats
Into The Ring.

Washington, Aug. 27.—Word comes from Illinois that Former Speaker Cannon is weary of the calm and quiet of private life and is taking steps to return to Congress once more. For about six months Mr. Cannon has been basking on his front porch in Danville with occasional visits to Washington and to old friends in the East. But this peaceful existence has got on his nerves, and he is going once more to take the plunge into politics.

Not only will he be a candidate for the House in the Danville District next year, but practically all the old crowd of Republicans in the House from Illinois will get in the running. Former Congressmen McKinley, Rodenberg, Fuller, Sterling, Prince, Foss and McKinney are all grooming themselves for the race.

With the possible exception of Foss, all these men have been thick and thin members of the Old Guard. Progressive Republicans in Illinois do not relish the idea of these regulars now coming forward to claim further honors. But the Republican machinery in Illinois is sufficiently dominated by regulars to make it necessary to reckon with men like Cannon, McKelvey, Rodenberg, and other unbending standpatters.

This situation alone, with the men named in the field for Congress, would make the forthcoming struggle in Illinois sufficiently entertaining, but there are other striking features to it. Former Senator Lorimer is persevering in his intention to get a re-election to the Senate from which he was ousted. He has already opened his campaign and has begun making speeches.

FRANK SENTENCED.

October 10th Fixed as Date of Execution.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 27.—Leo M. Frank was yesterday sentenced to the gallows for the murder of Mary Phagan, Judge Roan fixing October 10th as the date for the execution. Attorneys for the convicted factory superintendent at once entered a motion for a new trial, and October 4 was announced as the date for the hearing. This renders it certain that Frank will not be hanged October 10, since, even if the motion should be overruled, it would require considerable time for the appeal to go through the higher courts.

After sentencing Frank, the court ordered that Newt Lee, negro night watchman at the factory, where Frank was superintendent, be set at liberty. Lee has been in custody since April.

James Conley, the negro who confessed to having aided Frank dispose of Mary Phagan's body, still is in jail.

SCHOOL PERMITS.

Will be Issued September 1,
Commencing at 9 O'clock
A. M.

The Clerk of the City School Board will begin the issuance of permits to enter the public schools to white children on Monday, September 1, 1913, at Armory Hall, commencing at 9 o'clock continuing the same to 2 p. m. He will continue to issue the same to white children on the following Tuesday and Wednesday.

Permits will be issued to colored children Thursday at the same hour. The law requires that all children shall have been vaccinated and the city tax of fifty cents must be paid by parents or guardians.

HARRY KIRK, Clerk.

ST. MARY'S ACADEMY.

Alexandria's Private School for Girls to Open September 2nd.

Vocation is rapidly bearing its close, and earnest parents, alive to the ever increasing need of the education that trains the heart and forms the character while it develops the intellect, are looking about for the best school in which to educate rightly their daughters. To such St. Mary's Academy with its artistic environment, modern building, splendid curriculum and experienced faculty must appeal; it is conducted by the Sisters of the Holy Cross, from St. Mary's College, Notre Dame, Indiana, a teaching order whose watchword is progress, and whose advancement has been rapid and continuous, since in 1842 five Sisters, under the direction of the celebrated educator and founder of the world renowned University of Notre Dame, the Very Rev. Edward Sorin, C. S. C., established the first humble log cabin St. Mary's Academy in the wilds of Indiana. Today there are one thousand Sisters of the Holy Cross with sixty schools scattered over the length and breadth of these United States, all under the general supervision of the Mother House and following the splendid educational methods that give this teaching order a reputation second to none on the continent.

In 1869, five Sisters opened the present Academy in our city; their pupils did not far outnumber the teachers; but like all humble beginnings which God blesses, St. Mary's has grown with the years, and this growth has not only been in educational facilities, but in popularity, and marvellous success. Last year two hundred and fifty students were in regular attendance; this year the enrollment promises to reach the three hundred mark; for no fact is more palpable today to the thinking public than that knowledge without religion and its handmaid morality is not education; hence the phenomenal success of the schools in which God and His holy law form the basis of all instruction, the key note of all training. Such a school is St. Mary's Academy, a Catholic institution, where pupils of all denominations are received and where no influence what over is brought to bear upon their religious convictions save the unconfined and uplifting influence of the refined and virtuous atmosphere that pervades the convent school, taught by women who have consecrated their lives to the noble work of education by the complete development of the child into the perfect woman.

The education given at St. Mary's is of so practical and comprehensive a nature as to fit its students in point of usefulness for any walk in life. Its aim is to produce a result that is threefold—culture of the mind by the Academic, Commercial, Music and Art courses, development of grace and symmetry by Physical culture, Elocution and kindred aesthetic arts, and finally and above all the training of heart and soul by those moral and refining influences that ever characterize the Christian home.

The Academic or English Course covers twelve grades and requires as many years for its completion, when the highest honors of the school, the gold medal and diploma of a graduate, are conferred; it is divided into three separate departments—primary, preparatory, and high school, each under the direction of teachers especially trained for their work and with an experience that ever produces good results.

A very special and distinguishing feature of the school's efficiency is its Commercial Department where students who have successfully finished the eighth grade in any school may in a very short time fit themselves for clerical or office work. In the complete course of two years stenography, typewriting, bookkeeping, commercial arithmetic, spelling, commercial law, and punctuation, and penmanship are taught. A shorter course of one year gives the student a working knowledge of typewriting and stenography or bookkeeping; after the completion of either course positions are easily secured.

Music has ever formed a very distinct art of St. Mary's course of studies and no expense has been spared to make this one of the most efficient departments of the school; the latest and most approved methods of instruction are followed and every facility afforded the pupils to acquire a correct knowledge of classical music and acquaintance with the masters. MOVEMENT TO EXTRADITE THAW

be Scene of Main Acts of Drama.

JEROME IS CONFIDENT

Reiterates That The Fugitive Will Soon be on His Way to The Matteawan Asylum.

Court House, Sherbrooke, Quebec, Aug. 27.—Harry K. Thaw, in charge of the prison governor and Chief Constable Moe, was brought into court at 10 o'clock. He was in fine fettle and shook hands with his attorneys. Canadian precedence was set aside when he was permitted to sit with his attorneys instead of being placed in the prisoner's dock.

The trip from the jail was made in a closed carriage. Thaw was not handcuffed and after he had settled into his seat carefully, looked over the big crowd which jammed the court room to suffocation.

It was the Thaw millions today against the State of New York. The scales of justice were in the hands of the sister nation, Canada. Thaw and his lawyers wanted further delay. W. T. Jerome's boast that Vermont wanted none of Thaw, following his spectacular trip through that state last Sunday, has scared the entire Thaw party. The attorney admitted they did not want to go up against any sure thing.

And so they had filed a paper purporting to discontinue the habeas corpus proceedings, designed to procure Thaw's immediate freedom. They said for publication that this had the effect of putting Thaw back where he stood when originally arrested. And they insisted that this meant that Thaw must remain in Canada until the regular session of court in October.

The Thaw lawyers intended keeping Thaw out of court at all, if possible. But if they finally had to appear they intended announcing they wanted a jury trial. This would put the case over until October.

Following an all night conference between Jerome, Deputy Attorney General Kennedy, of New York; District Attorney Conger, and Sheriff Hornbeck, of Dutchess county, Jerome authorized the following:

"Harry K. Thaw will start on his way to Matteawan tomorrow. We have the assurances of the Canadian authorities at Ottawa that sharp practices will be discontinued. The Dominion government is greater than the provincial, and when it cracks the whip the provincials jump."

NEGRO WOUNDS OFFICER.

Desperado Leaps From Automobile
While Being Taken to Jail.

Burkeville, Va., Aug. 27.—Though shot in the back by Policeman Waters after he had stabbed a brother officer, Harry Jennings, a negro, of Crewe, last night managed to make his escape by leaping from an automobile while being taken to the jail at Farmville.

Jennings became disorderly while attending a baseball game between the "White Elephants" of Richmond and a local team. Special Officer Edward Burham attempted to place him under arrest. Jennings drew a knife and plunged it in his back, and while attempting to escape was shot by Waters. Jennings was not seriously wounded. He was placed in an automobile to make the trip to Farmville, and when near that town leaped from the machine as if to expectorate, then suddenly leaped out and disappeared in the woods at the side of the road. An organized search is now being made for him.

ANOTHER ASSAULT.

Young Woman Mistreated on Outskirts of Washington.

Having restrained an angry mob bent upon lynching, Deputy Sheriff Whelan and a small posse last night secured the section of Montgomery county, Md., lying in proximity to Bethesda district for an unidentified white man who, shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, attempted an attack upon Miss Anna Bell, the pretty 17-year-old daughter of a prosperous farmer living on the outskirts of the village.

Miss Bell was passing through a piece of woodland on her return from a visit to her sister, Mrs. Lynch living at Cropley, a hamlet about 2 miles from her home. She was within 300 yards of her father's house when a strange man sprang out from the underbrush, and, with the exclamation, "I have got you now!" seized her about the waist and threw her to the ground.

As the young woman fell she landed upon a large rock, sustaining a deep gash in her side. Though the blow all but rendered her unconscious, she fought off her assailant as best she might, at the same time calling loudly for help. The man beat her about the face and head in his efforts to shut off these cries, and practically stripped the girl's garments from her body.

His efforts to choke Miss Bell into insensibility having proved futile, the man, fearing that her calls might have attracted attention, ran off. Her struggle ended, the young woman lapsed into unconsciousness. Upon recovering an hour later she crawled to her home and informed her father of the attack.

CHARGED WITH BIGAMY.

Accused And Alleged Second Wife
Discovered in Richmond.

Richmond, Aug. 27.—"We want H. A. Smith and want him bad."

This telegram was received from William Copeland, chief of police of Cincinnati, relative to Harry A. Smith, 23 years old, an alleged bigamist, who was routed out of bed early yesterday by Detectives Wiley and Kellam and locked up.

The arrest was made at 919 East Leigh street, where he was living with an uncommonly pretty 18-year-old wife, who is said to be wife No. 2. Her name was Rosamond Elizabeth Wright and she married Smith at Durham, N. C., last February, according to her statement to the police.

Smith's first wife is reported to be living in Cincinnati. She has a child.

The prisoner's youthful companion here was prostrated by his arrest. She first declined to see him after he had dressed and was ready to go with the detectives, but afterward relented and bade him an affectionate farewell.

Neither Smith's alleged bride nor legal counsel were present when the prisoner was arraigned before Justice Crutchfield. After reading the telegram from Chief Copeland and conferring with the detectives, the court ordered him held until September 2. It is expected an officer with extradition papers will arrive before that time.

Smith's attitude toward the detectives was surely. He refused to answer their questions. He is a well-dressed, well-built young man, and had been working as a clerk for the Virginia Stationery Company, the police said.

SCORNS WOMEN IN DEATH.

Oregon Bachelor in His Will, Orders
Designs Engraved on Tombstone.

Marshfield, Ore., Aug. 27.—The remarkable will of Wm. H. Hartley, who, died recently, was admitted to probate in this county.

The will, after providing for payment of debts and funeral expenses, makes the following provision:

"I direct that an elegant tombstone or monument be placed on my grave to be made of granite, on which all the lettering shall show plainly and distinctly, and be of lasting quality, and on the tombstone or monument shall be engraved an old bachelor standing on the brink of Jordan, preparing to cross the river, and on the other side of the river a group of old maids, each carrying in her hand a bunch of roses, and beckoning him to cross."

FUGITIVE IS HIDING.

Two Washington Detectives Dispatched to Montgomery County to Find the Fugitive.

Washington, Aug. 27.—Detlef H. Schultz, alleged assailant of Francis A. Reilly, is today hiding in Montgomery county, Md., according to the belief of detectives working on the case.

Acting on information furnished by Constable Garrison, of Hyattsville, that a man thought to be Schultz, rode on a grocery wagon for about a mile on the road between Riverdale and College Park yesterday afternoon, Acting Inspector of Detectives Charles Evans this morning dispatched Detectives Weedon and Durlingame to Riverdale in the hope of getting some definite clue to the hiding place of the fugitive.

According to Constable Garrison, a man who answered the description of Schultz in every particular except that he seemed to be under thirty years of age and did not have on eyeglasses, stopped a grocery wagon driven by a young man named Wiseman and asked him for a "lift." This was late yesterday afternoon, on a lonely part of the road a short distance beyond Riverdale.

DEATH OF C. M. CAUGHEY.

Deceased Was Appointed Counsel to Messina by President Cleveland.

(Special Dispatch to Gazette.)
Richmond, Va., Aug. 27.—Charles M. Caughey, who for several months has been ill at his wife's home here, died this morning, aged 63 years. Mr. Caughey was a native of Baltimore. He is survived by his wife and two children. He was first appointed to consular service by the late President Cleveland.

EDITOR ASSAULTED.

Judge of Norfolk County Court Assailant.

Norfolk, Aug. 27.—Charles Russell Kelly, editor of the Norfolk News, a twice-a-week publication, was assaulted by Judge Joseph T. Lawless, of the Norfolk County Circuit Court yesterday, on City Hall Avenue, this city. Judge Lawless, according to eyewitnesses, called Kelly a cur and then spat in his face. Several blows were passed before the men were separated.

Judge Lawless, it is said, took offense at statements published in Kelly's paper relative to the trial of Chief of Police Backus, of Norfolk county, who was recently acquitted of permitting violations of the law at Ocean View.

Mr. Kelly said last night he had not decided what he intends doing in the matter. A number of his friends want him to swear out a warrant for Judge Lawless for assault.

Judge Lawless, at his home in Norfolk county last night, said: "Yes, I spat in his face, and I did it."

Chief of Police Backus was with Judge Lawless when the assault occurred. Judge Lawless was formerly Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Mrs. James Johnston and son, Frank Johnston, have returned from Bluemont, where they spent several weeks.

COMPLAINED OF RED TAPE.
Man in Soliciting Money Said There Was Too Much Formality in Procuring Same.
William Putnam while engaged yesterday in soliciting money became impatient at the slow manner in which his requests were met. He entered a store and when his appeals were unheeded became angry with one of the attaches. As he left he said, "there was entirely too much red tape in Alexandria."
Putnam was arrested and brought before the Police Court this morning when a fine of five dollars was imposed. Unable to meet the assessment, the solicitor was sent to jail.

FREE VISITS TO TOMB
School Children Invited to Mount Vernon—No Admission Fee For Such
The Mount Vernon Ladies' Association of the Union at a recent meeting of the council passed a resolution, admitting school children free to Mt. Vernon on Saturdays when accompanied by suitable guardians or teachers, who are also admitted free. The superintendent must be communicated with in advance. Heretofore children under 10 years have been admitted free, but the council decided to extend the privilege to older children, who might profit by a visit to Washington's home.
The superintendent is Harrison H. Dodge, Mount Vernon, Fairfax county, Va.
The above announcement will be read with satisfaction by the thousands of school children who naturally desire to visit the tomb of George Washington. Children, familiar with pictures of Mt. Vernon, have their interest in the sacred place greatly augmented when they see the hallowed spot emerge from histories into the solid reality of the original.
There are many things inside the mansion to interest the little ones while their minds are forming. The key of the Bastille exposed in one of the rooms is a ghastly relic of the days of blood in Paris, and calls to mind the horrors of the French revolution together with the story of Lafayette, who spent thirty-six years in the gloomy old prison.
Many reminders of the history of our own country and that of the immortal Washington are displayed in the old mansion, all of which should be studied by the young.

NEGRO STEALS BICYCLE
Jumps on Machine and Speeds Away Before Alarm Could Be Given
Early yesterday afternoon Harry Simpson while passing the southeast corner of Prince and St. Asaph streets saw a young negro man acting in a suspicious manner, and as though he was about to commit some offense. Mr. Simpson proceeded south on St. Asaph street until he reached Duke street, when he took a position behind a telegraph post in order to watch the negro. The latter at this time entered the yard of the residence of James Johnston and took a bicycle belonging to Mr. Johnston's son and after having brought it into street mounted the machine and rode speedily away. Mr. Simpson ran back to Prince street for the purpose of intercepting the thief, but by the time he reached Mr. Johnston's house the negro had vanished with the wheel.
The police were immediately notified, but up to a late hour last night no tidings of the thief or bicycle had been ascertained.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

VOTING ON STRIKE.

Chesapeake and Ohio Railroaders, it is said, will walk out.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 27.—All members of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks working in the offices of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway between Newport News and Chicago are voting this week on the question of calling a strike over the entire system.

That the clerks will vote to strike is the opinion of the brotherhood who have been in Richmond for several days organizing the clerks employed here. Fifteen hundred ballots have been sent out and although, according to D. H. Hendershott, of the general board of adjustment, not more than half of these have had time to reach their destination, replies are already coming in and the overwhelming majority of those received favor calling a strike until such time as the management of the railway system consents to adjust the matter at issue.

The issue is the refusal of General Manager Johnson to treat with a committee of the association for the settlement of a number of grievances called to his attention by the officials, said Mr. Hendershott last night.

"He will treat with us in a few days or there will be a strike," said Charles M. Owens, of Cincinnati, an organizer of the Clerk's Union, who, with J. F. Reiley and Mr. Hendershott has been in Richmond for more than a week.

General Manager Johnson, when seen, said that there was no expected trouble with its clerks. "We refused to treat with Mr. Reiley," said Mr. Johnson, "because he is not an employee of the Chesapeake and Ohio. We anticipate no trouble."

HOMELESS IN MEXICO.

Mrs. Shannon, of Farmville, Va., Begs Congressman Watson to Aid Father.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 27.—The State Department has been called to rescue a family of distressed and homeless Virginians in Mexico, who are at the mercy of the rebels.

Mrs. J. S. Shannon, of Farmville, Va., today wired Congressman Watson that her father, A. C. Kies, a prominent ranch owner near Durango, Mex., and family, consisting of his wife and two grandchildren, have been driven from their ranch by the rebels and their property destroyed. She fears they have been left destitute and may be wandering without protection.

Mrs. Shannon has been unable to communicate with them for over two weeks and there seems to be no official person in Durango with whom she can secure information regarding American citizens. The telegraph companies refuse Mrs. Shannon's message, saying they are unable to get through to Durango.

Congressman Watson placed the matter before Secretary Bryan today and efforts are being made by the State Department to learn the whereabouts of Kies and his family and effect their rescue.

Lynchburg, Va., Aug. 27.—After imposing sentence on a thirteen-year-old boy in police court yesterday morning for stealing a $20 watch, Mayor Smith dismissed Mrs. Beula Bran, the Charlotte county woman who was arrested Saturday on the charge of stealing a $450 ring from the H. Silverthorn Company. The ring was recovered from Mrs. Bran at a hotel, but the case was dismissed when the jewelry people asked that it not be prosecuted.

CHURCH 207 YEARS OLD.

Old Yeocombo Parish, in Virginia, Celebrates Anniversary.

Lancaster, Va., Aug. 27.—The two hundred and seventh anniversary of Old Yeocombo Church, Cople Parish, Westmoreland county, was celebrated with appropriate ceremonies. At the bicentenary in 1906 at the instance of Rev. John Poyntz Tyler, then archdeacon of the diocese of Virginia, and now holding a similar position in the diocese of Maryland, an association was organized for the purpose of holding annual meetings and of raising an endowment fund for the repair and preservation of the historic edifice.

Meetings have been held every year since then and the meeting this year was one of the largest.

Rev. Mr. Tyler conducted the morning service Sunday and preached the annual sermon. In the afternoon Rev. Mr. Cruso, rector of the parish, and Rev. Mr. Phelps, rector of Washington parish, conducted the service and made addresses. The committee of arrangements, with Watt Tyler Mayo at its head, made ample preparation for the pleasure and entertainment of the large crowd of visitors which attended the celebration.

Yeocombo Church was built in 1706. It took its Indian name from the nearby river. It is in the shape of a cross, and its architecture, while rather rude, is durable and impressive. After the Revolutionary War it fell into decay and during the war of 1812 it was occupied by American soldiers, who virtually dismantled its interior. It was used for a time by the Methodists, who tried to get legal possession of it, but when the case was carried up to the Supreme Court of Appeals it was declared to be the property of the Episcopal church. Repairs and alterations have been made from time to time.

TRAIN ROLLS DOWN BANK.

Seventeen Persons Injured—Accident Due to Spreading Rails.

Bremo, Va., Aug. 27.—Seventeen persons were injured when mixed train No. 308, on the Buckingham division of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway left the tracks half a mile south of Bremo yesterday, and rolled down a 20-foot embankment.

There were a number of narrow escapes from death, and the rescue workers found many of the injured pinned under the wreckage of the white passenger coach, and three freight cars.

Miss Helen Page, of Lynchburg, who had a miraculous escape, proved herself the heroine of the occasion by working frantically with the men in rescuing the maimed and injured from beneath the debris.

The cause of the wreck was spreading rails.

None of the injured are seriously hurt except Conductor Doswell, who, it is believed, has a fighting chance for his life.

THEY MUST TESTIFY.

Prominent Citizens of Clarke County Caught in Gambling Raid.

Winchester, Va., Aug. 27.—About a dozen well known residents of Berryville, Clarke county, some of whom are said to be among the most prominent citizens of the town, will be required to appear in court as witnesses for the Commonwealth against Robert Wendell, of Front Royal, Va., who is charged with having operated a gambling place in the cellar of a Berryville hotel, when Chief of Police Feltner and assistants made a spectacular raid a few nights ago.

Two poker games of absorbing interest were in full blast, and the officers arrested Wendell and seven other players, despite the efforts to disappear through doors and windows. Wendell was fined $100 and costs and given sixty days in jail, but appealed and was released on $300 bond to appear at the next term of the Circuit Court. Seven of his companions were fined $5 each and they had to give bond for their appearance at Wendell's trial on appeal.

The names of prominent citizens were taken by the police, and they will have to appear as witnesses. They claim to have been spectators.

The officers also gathered up the playing cards, the jackpot, chips, several crates of empty beer bottles, and other evidences of a "good time," all of which will be introduced by the Commonwealth as evidence.

DROWNED AT BEACH.

Norfolk Man Dies While Wife Looks on Powerless to Help.

Norfolk, Va., Aug. 27.—W. M. Boushall, of this city, was drowned at Willoughby Beach yesterday afternoon in water barely up to his waist, while his wife sat on the porch of a cottage looking on, unable to help him.

Boushall had been bathing some time and started for shore. His wife says she thought she heard him call, but she could not hear what he said. Then he disappeared beneath the surface of the water. When assistance reached him life was extinct. It is believed he died from heart trouble.

George Halstead, 10-year-old son of D. W. Halstead, Norfolk's cripple "newsy," was drowned in the Elizabeth river yesterday afternoon while bathing off Huckleberry Point. The body had not been recovered at a late hour last night.

The revelation that the diplomatic negotiations which finally resulted in the Anglo-Japanese alliance first contemplated an Anglo-German Japanese triple alliance and that Germany was largely instrumental in starting them, but was shut out by Japan, is made in the diary of the late Count Hayashi, former Japanese Ambassador to Great Britain and twice Foreign Minister. Part of the diary has just come to light.

Death From Drinking.

Roanoke, Va., Aug. 27.—A white man, 35 years old, believed to be C. H. Brown, said to have been employed at one time in the Norfolk and Western shops, was found dead in his cell at the city jail about midnight Sunday night. While no inquest was held it is believed Brown died as the result of excessive drinking.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Ambassador Chinda has delivered to Secretary Bryan Japan's latest note in the California anti-band controversy. Secretary Bryan and Ambassador Chinda agreed to continue their understanding of making public nothing contained in the diplomatic exchange on the questions, and upon that all information of what was contained in the Tokyo Government's latest communication was withheld from publication. It may be said, however, that the latest Japanese note contains nothing in the nature of an ultimatum or which might bring the negotiations to a finality. On the other hand, it is couched in a vein to carry the negotiations along and preserve the issue without making any determination of the contentions of either government. Its general tone is said to indicate that the negotiations may continue for months.

Fred E. Potee, a member of the transfer crew in Delman, Del., yard, caught his foot in a switch frog and was run over and killed by a locomotive yesterday.

Jack Johnson's music hall engagements in London were "postponed" yesterday on account of the intense resentment displayed on all sides. It is understood that the "postponement" will be made permanent later, as the licensing authorities have threatened to make trouble if the engagement of the negro pugilist is not canceled.

Fred Robertson, of Niagara Falls, N.Y., a chauffeur, was killed and W. B. Sensebaugh, a negro, living in Chicago was probably fatally injured Sunday night when their automobile, running at the rate of sixty miles an hour, left the road and struck the wall of the hydraulic canal. The machine turned a somersault over the wall and went into the canal, which is twenty-two feet deep at this point. Sensebaugh landed clear of the machine and was rescued. Robertson's body was pinned in the car at the bottom of the canal.

Miss Sarah Clinesmith, 20 years of age, and her brothers, Lawrence and Charles, 17 and 26 years old, respectively, all from Detroit, were drowned in Lake St. Clair, off Pearl Beach, yesterday afternoon. They went fishing in a leaky boat and when it filled, they jumped overboard. A man in a motorboat went to the rescue, but the victims sank before he could reach them.

Joe McNeely, a negro, who shot and wounded a policeman last week at Charlotte, N. C., was taken from the jail, where he was guarded by police, by a mob yesterday and shot to death. A reward of $1,000 has been offered for his assailants. Fear of race riots has caused the city council to order all sales of firearms stopped.

The Southern Chinese revolution, directed by Sun Yat Sun and Wu Ting Fang, has completely collapsed. Dispatches state that the rebel stronghold at Nankin has fallen into the hands of President Yuan Shi Kai's Federal troops. It is believed now that if there is any fighting in the future it will be of a desultory character between the bands of rebels and Federal soldiers.

GET TO THE CAUSE.

Alexandria People Are Learning the Way.

There is but little peace or comfort for the man or woman with a bad back. The distress begins in early morning—keeps up throughout the day. It's hard to get out of bed, it's torture to stoop or straighten. Plasters and liniments may relieve, but cannot cure if the cause is inside—the kidneys. When suffering so, use Doan's Kidney Pills, the tested and proven kidney remedy, used in kidney troubles for over 30 years. Doan's Kidney Pills are recommended by thousands for just such cases. Proof of their effectiveness in the testimony of this Alexandria resident.

Mrs. Nettie G. Davis, 425 S. Lee St., Alexandria, Va., says: "I can give Doan's Kidney Pills my highest endorsement. I was cured by them of constant backache, lameness in my joints and dizzy spells. This remedy also strengthened my kidneys."

A Second Statement.

Mrs. Davis was interviewed on March 27, 1913, and she said: "You may continue using the endorsement I gave several years ago. I still take Doan's Kidney Pills occasionally with the most satisfactory results."

NEGROES PLANNED ASSAULT.

Write White Girls, Enticing Them to Lonely Place.

Crisfield, Md., Aug. 27.—George Washington, of North Carolina; Ferdinand Upshur and George Epps, of Virginia, all negroes, were brought to Crisfield yesterday morning from Smiths Island, charged with attempted criminal assault on two young women of the island.

It is said that Upshur and Epps wrote letters to the young women urging them to come to a lonely spot on the island and sent the letter by Washington. Both letters were signed "A Friend," and in them it was stated that something of vital importance to the young women would be told them.

While crossing the island to the homes of the young women Washington's hat in which he had placed the letters, was blown off and the letters scattered about the ground. Several white men were passing, and noticing the letters, picked them up. As they were unsealed, they were read. The white men went to the place indicated in the letters and found the negroes waiting. On seeing the white men they started for a boat anchored close by. They were pursued and captured.

The news of the affair spread about the island and shortly a crowd of several hundred persons had collected. There was general talk of lynching the negroes, but the counsel of some of the cooler heads prevailed and the crowd finally allowed the negroes to be placed in the custody of a deputy sheriff, who, fearing that the sentiment might change at any moment, brought them to this city in a gasoline boat.

A secret hearing was held yesterday morning in Police Justice W. A. Britton's office, at which one of the negroes confessed that the letters were written with the intention of luring the young women to the lonely part of the island and there assault them.

MR. HOGE TO LOSE OFFICE.

Bryd Anderson Gets Postmastership At Blacksburg, Va.

Washington, Aug. 27.—Mrs. J. Hampton Hoge, widow of the former Republican candidate for Governor of Virginia, yesterday lost her fight for retention as postmistress at Blacksburg, Va., when President Wilson, upon the recommendation of Representative Carter Glass, nominated Bryd Anderson for the post.

An effort was made last fall by Representative Slemm, the Republican state leader, to displace Mrs. Hoge with a Republican, but the Democrats blocked the postoffice nominations of President Taft.

The late J. Hampton Hoge was appointed to a diplomatic position by President Cleveland, and was recalled after he had started on his journey. This act so embittered him that he left the Democratic party and allied himself with the Republicans.

Strike in London.

Hundreds of army pensioners in Chelsea Hospital, in Old Soldiers' Home of London, went hungry yesterday owing to the strike of electricians of the public works department declared because of the employment of non union painters at the Admiralty.

Not until Earl Beauchamp, first commissioner of public works, formally appealed to the strike leaders did the electrical engineers consent to heat the ovens so as to supply bread to the veterans. The culinary department of the civil service institutions were placed in the same plight.

Fountains in the public squares were put out of service, as the pumpers refused to work. Ten thousand men laid down their tools yesterday, and the members of 18 unions connected with the building trade threatened to join the movement unless their demands for the dismissal of nonunion workmen are complied with.

There appears to be danger that the water supply at Buckingham Palace, Marlborough House, St. James' Palace and all the government offices will be cut off. All are supplied from artesian wells, and the engineers and workmen engaged in their operation joined the strikers.

Honest Advice to

Consumptives

Somewhere there exists a vast amount of skepticism as to the possibility of curing Consumption. We state none but facts, and are sincere in what we assert. We should do precisely what we ask others to do—take Eckman's Alternative promptly and faithfully. The reason we should do this and warrant we have for asking all Consumptives to take it, is that we have the reports of many recoveries, one of which follows:— "1611 Sanssouthern Ave., Philadelphia, Pa. 'Gentlemen: For two years I was afflicted with hemorrhages of the lungs, the number totaled nearly one hundred. Since that time I have had two slight attacks of pneumonia and I have resorted to no other medicine to effect a cure. 'I am at present in excellent health and feel that as long as I can obtain Eckman's Alternative, I have no fear of Consumption. I cannot speak too highly for the good it has done.' (Signed) HOWARD E. KLOTZ. Eckman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough, Lung Trouble, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. For best telling of recoveries, write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for more evidence. For sale by all adding druggists HUDSON'S PHARMACY.

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years

Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

BY CARDUI (LAWYER)

My Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell."

I tried most every kind of medicine but none did me any good.

I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it."

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly troubles, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlasting tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.
